Join us for Eagle Council 54, Eagle Forum's annual leadership and training conference, September 24–26, 2026, in beautiful Nashville, Tennessee! Hosted at the Sheraton Music City Hotel, this inspiring event continues the vision of Eagle Forum founder Phyllis Schlafly by equipping and encouraging grassroots activists to defend faith, family, freedom, and free enterprise.

Eagle Council offers outstanding speakers, practical training, and fellowship with fellow conservatives from across the nation. Special programming will be available for Student Eagles, including a Thursday evening pizza party and Friday morning activities celebrating America 250.

On Friday afternoon, attendees may enjoy a special tour of The Hermitage, home of President Andrew Jackson.

Whether you're a long-time activist or just getting involved, Eagle Council will energize and equip you to make a difference. Bring your children and grandchildren as we prepare the next generation of leaders.

Lodging: Sheraton Music City Nashville Airport Hotel
Conference Rate: $159/night (reserve by September 3, 2026)
